

MICE Agents Take In Kauai, Oahu

Kiwi MICE agents got to experience the highs and lows of Kauai and Oahu recently—with a jam-packed itinerary that saw them take in Kauai by helicopter and ATV (with a little Koloa rum thrown in) as well as Oahu highlights such as Kualoa Ranch, the North Shore & Haleiwa.

The agents even got to meet Mr Matsumoto from the famed shave ice store of the same name.

Johnston, BCD Travel; Hayley McIntyre, Orbit Travel; Virginia Hales, HA; and Karen Gemmell, Eventzconnect.

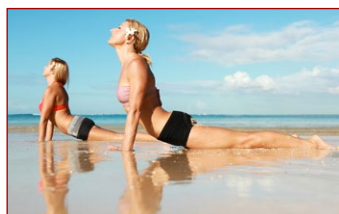

2 The combined NZ and Australian famil group meeting Mr Matsumoto from the famous Matsumoto Shave Ice shop in the Haleiwa Store Lots. Haleiwa Store Lots is a plantation-inspired retail, dining and cultural gathering space in Haleiwa. It's owned and developed by Kamehameha Schools and is home to 20 locally operated businesses featuring nine with North Shore roots. The area pays homage to the plantation and surf culture of the area with its vibrant architecture and community focused development.

3 Tasting some of the award-winning rums at Koloa Rum is Virginia Hales, HA and Karen Gemmell, Eventzconnect.

4 The group got to explore the beauty of Kauai from the air with Safari Helicopters. Pictured is Adam Leslie from Graffiti Events.

5 Sarah Kirk, Extra Mile Company and Sammie Johnston, BCD Travel getting ready for their ATV adventure at Kipu Ranch.

6 Exploring the beautiful Kualoa Ranch and the opportunities there for offsite events and activities—although the group had to make a hasty after running into some scary visitors on one of the movie sites.
