

New Honolulu Dining Options

Honolulu's Ala Moana Center's newest dining concept, The Lanai @ Ala Moana is set to officially open its doors 27 Oct.

Serving up breakfast, lunch, dinner and grab-and-go options, the contemporary food hall will provide seating for up to 450 people, with 10 new dining options on offer. This includes the likes of Brug, a popular Japanese-style bakery and café;

New Look Kauai Shores

The Kauai Shores Hotel has recently completed a USD10 million upgrade that covered its rooms, lobby and pool area.

The 200-room hotel, which has undergone two years of renovation, is located on Kauai's Coconut Coast. The final development included a new Jacuzzi and revamped pool deck. The property also features a restaurant, complimentary bicycles, wifi and yoga classes and activities such as ukulele lessons. See kauaishoreshotel.com/ while Da Spot will be the place to go for clients who are looking for a healthy meal; and for those looking for a burger, Mahaloa Burger will serve up free-range beef patties from the Big Island of Hawaii.

"As food halls continue to increase in popularity across the US, we look forward to unveiling Oahu's newest communal dining concept in the Center's Diamond Head Wing," says Ala Moana Center's senior gm Francis Cofran. It will be located in the former Shirokiya space on Mall Level 2.
