

Australia on Screen

Melbourne and Great Ocean Road

The final episode of My Kind of Place screened on Saturday night showcasing some of the highlight's of Victoria. If you missed the episode you can watch it online at Australia.com.

In this episode, Kiwi actress Teresa Healey went from the bright lights of Melbourne to the serenity of Victoria's west coast to experience the famed Great Ocean Walk. Teresa was blown away by Melbourne's shopping and gastronomy as she weaved her way through the cities colourful laneways. The Great Ocean Walk proved to be the perfect contrast. With days spent passing through amazing scenery, and evenings in the lap of luxury it's no surprise this is renowned as one of the world's best walks. The series has wrapped up but you can still read about the amazing destinations and experiences at Australia.com.

Penguin Parade at Phillip Island

Just 90 minutes from Melbourne is Phillip Island, a destination with a beautiful coastline and an abundance of wildlife. A highlight attraction on the island is the 'Penguin Parade' where every day visitors can watch as hundreds of little penguins emerge from the ocean and march across the beach to their burrows in the sand dunes.

Philip Island is also home to the Philip Island Grand Prix Circuit which will delight car and motorbike enthusiasts with high octane racing events and the opportunity to partake in activities including go carts or hot laps with a racing driver. visitphillipisland.com

Get Lost in Melbourne's Laneways

Melbourne is a cosmopolitan city with a vibrant events scene, excellent bars and restaurants and fabulous shopping. Many of the city's hot spots are tucked away in the city's famed laneways. Lined with cobblestones, and decorated in colourful graffiti art Melbourne's laneways are a delight to explore and can lead to some excellent bar or shop discoveries. Visitors can benefit from the knowledge of a tourist guide or friend, or enjoy the thrill of wandering the laneways and delight in their own special finds. visitvictoria.com

Great Ocean Walk

The Great Ocean Walk, on Victoria's spectacular west coast, stretches 104 kilometres from the idyllic resort town of Apollo Bay, to within sight of the magnificent 12 Apostles. The route weaves through beautiful national parks, along deserted beaches and offers the chance to see a range of iconic Australian animals including koalas and kangaroos in the wild. Along the way there are myriad of accommodation options ranging from luxury lodges to picturesque camping spots. greatoceanwalk.com.au
