

Australia on Screen

Walkabout in South Australia

One of our favourite television stars featured in Saturday's episode of My Kind of Place, giving viewers a taste of his home and favourite places in South Australia.

The episode featured a mix of the outback and some of Australia's best wine regions; McLaren Vale and the Clare Valley.

If you missed the episode, or would like more information about featured experiences go to the My Kind of Place website.

Flinders Ranges and Wilpena Pound

Located 4.5 hrs drive north of Adelaide, the Flinders Ranges feature some of the most spectacular outback scenes in Australia including; sandy riverbeds lined with 1000 year old gum trees, rolling grassland, native pine forests, incredible lookouts and the colossal Wilpena Pound. Visitors can also expect to see a range of wildlife like kangaroo, emu and yellow footed rock wallaby. It is also a great place to learn about Aboriginal culture.

There are many exciting ways to experience the Flinders Ranges including; 4WD tours, bushwalking, hot air ballooning and scenic flights. The best way to see Wilpena Pound is from the air. Central Air Services offer incredible scenic flights over Wilpena Pound from Rawnsley Park Station, putting it into perspective and allowing guests to appreciate the vastness of its formation. rawnsleypark.com.au

Adelaide

Adelaide is the gateway to South Australia and is easily accessed on a direct flight from Auckland. It's a fantastic city for food lovers with a huge range of excellent cafés and restaurants showcasing the regions wonderful produce. A must-do is a visit to the Adelaide Central Markets – the largest undercover markets in the southern hemisphere.

Adelaide also features beautiful stone architecture, art galleries, boutique shopping and the beaches are just a short tram ride away. southaustralia.co.nz/adelaide

Rawnsley Park Station

Rawnsley Park Station is a great base from which to explore the Flinders Ranges. The station has a range of accommodation options including a campground, bunkhouses, holiday units, Eco villas and a luxury 2 bedroom homestead.

Their award winning, luxury eco-villas are set on a secluded spot offering uninterrupted views of Wilpena Pound and the Flinders Ranges. Each is stylishly decorated and even features a retractable ceiling over the bed for watching the dazzling night sky. Rawnsley Park Station also has an onsite swimming pool and restaurant and operate a range of activities and tour options. rawnsleypark.com.au

Skillogalee Winery

Skillogalee is a boutique winery located in the picturesque Clare Valley just 90 minutes north of Adelaide making it a lovely stopover on the way to the Flinders Ranges. The winery has a fantastic restaurant overlooking the vines with a menu that has an emphasis on fresh, seasonal and local produce. If a lunch stop simply isn't long enough Skillogalee also has luxury, self-contained accommodation. skillogalee.com.au

