Glamping out West

Star of Outrageous Fortune, Antonia Prebble travelled well out west to the coastal reaches of Western Australia on Saturday's episode My Kind of Place.

Antonia's journey took her to the spectacular Ningaloo Coast, a destination rich in marine life which has recently been named a World Heritage Site. Highlights of her trip included an up close experience with a whale shark and getting back to nature while 'glamping' (glam camping) at Eco Beach. You can watch this episode of My Kind of Place and learn more about featured experiences at Australia.com. This Saturday on My Kind of Place, tune in to see Josh Emmet on a culinary adventure in North East Victoria: 7.30pm Saturday nights on TV One.

Whale Shark Adventures

Ocean Eco Adventures have the ticket for one of life's greatest experiences: swimming with whale sharks. These graceful and placid animals are the world's largest fish and are found seasonally in the waters of the Ningaloo Reef. Ocean Eco Adventures take guests out to find these gentle giants where they can then jump in the water and snorkel alongside them. Ocean Eco Adventures also offer the opportunity to see a range of other magical marine creatures including humpback whales, manta rays, dolphins, seals and more. oceanecoventures.com.au

Ningaloo Safari Tours

Operating out of Exmouth, Ningaloo Safari Tours offer exceptional experiences to Cape Range National Park and the crystal clear waters of the Ningaloo Marine Park. Expert guides provide guests with fun and informative tours taking in rugged canyons, limestone ranges and pristine beaches by 4WD bus and boat. The tours are great way to see the highlights of these areas and the wildlife that inhabit them. ningaloosafari.com

Novotel Ningaloo Resort

The luxury Novotel Ningaloo Resort has a prime location on Sunrise Beach in the Exmouth Marina making it convenient to a range of tours and activities as well as the Exmouth town centre and airport. The resort includes both hotel rooms and self contained apartments. The Novotel Ningaloo complex also features the award winning Mantaray's restaurant, chic bar and lounge areas and a large pool area that overlooks the ocean. ## Back to Nature at Eco Beach

Just an hour from Broome, Eco Beach offers an unforgettable experience in a remote and spectacularly beautiful landscape. Accommodation options include 'glamping' (glamorous camping) as well as their new self-contained Beach Houses which are located on a cliff top site overlooking the Indian Ocean. There are a great number of activities for the mind, body and soul at Eco Beach including daily yoga classes, massage, fishing, kayaking, paddle boarding, whale or turtle watching tours and more.
